

The Knights Who Kneel, Chapter 1

One day Sam and Mom went to buy some things for their home.	13
They liked to shop together. While they were at the store, Sam	25 saw some books. He saw two different books he thought he	36 would like, but he did not have any money. "Mom, would you	48 please buy these books for me?" asked Sam. "I will buy one of	61 them," answered Mom. "Which one looks better to you?" "I would	72 probably like this one the best," said Sam. "It would be fun to	85 learn about knights. But this is a chapter book and it might be	98 too hard for me to read." "You and your dad can read it	111 together," said Mom. That night, when Dad got home from work,	122
Sam got out his new book. "Look at the new book Mom bought	135 for me. Will you please read it to me? It is not very easy to read."	151
Sam asked Dad. "Sure," said Dad. "But it is almost time for bed,	164 so you should get ready for bed first. After you are ready for bed,	178
I will come in your room and read the book to you.	190

I am glad Mom bought this for you." Sam got ready and got in	204 bed. Dad came in. He said, "Let's start. We will see how much we	218 can read in one night." "Do you think I will learn about knights?"	231 asked Sam. "I am not sure. You will probably learn a little bit	244 about knights. But, it does not look like there are very many	256 facts. I still think it will be fun to read." Dad started reading to	270
Sam.	271
